

PCT LTD Announces New Financial Officer Appointment

Little River, SC – May 14, 2021 – PCT LTD (OTC:PINK “PCTL”) announced today that Arthur E. Abraham has been appointed Chief Financial Officer, effective May 17, 2021. Abraham will succeed Sheldon Smith, J.D., CPA, whose new role will be overseeing the compliance of PCT LTD’s SEC filings and contract law.

Abraham, 66, served as chief financial officer for various private and public organizations, as well as regional and corporate controller for manufacturing and distribution giants such as Haagen-Dazs and SYSCO. Abraham is a proven financial leader with a solid track record of delivering profitable growth for various businesses.

“I am pleased to welcome Abraham to our leadership team,” said Gary Grieco, PCT LTD’s CEO and Chairman. Grieco further commented, “His deep and extensive experience in leading the financial operations of various businesses – as well as driving operational changes – will make an immediate impact as we effectively manage through the current economic challenges and continue to position the Company for future endeavors. I am confident Abraham will provide strong leadership and is an excellent addition to our team.”

Art Abraham, CFO, stated, “I am thrilled to join PCT LTD, a company I admire as an innovative organization with unique strengths, a strong business model and a proud history. I look forward to working with the team to execute the company’s priorities, accelerate its growth and enhance value for shareholders and all stakeholders.”

As CFO, Abraham will lead PCTL’s finance organization, ultimately responsible for accounting, treasury, financial planning and analysis, as well as taxes. Abraham holds a bachelor’s degree in Finance and Business Administration from Marshall University in Huntington, WVA.
